Issued annually in November

THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION
1505 Race Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

EDEN PUBLISHING HOUSE
1712-24 Chouteau Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

THE YEAR 1935

The Christian year 1935 is a common year of 365 days. July 4th will mark the beginning of the 160th year of American Independence; since the Reformation by Dr. Martin Luther it is the 418th. On February 19th it will be 372 years since the Heidelberg Catechism has been issued. Of the Jewish era it is the 5,696th after the creation of the world. Of the Mohammedan era it is the 1,354th since the flight of Mohammed. The year 2595 of the Japanese era, being the 10th year of the period Showa, begins on January 1, 1935.

Time

The time given in this Year Book is that of St. Louis (38° 38' north latitude and 90° 15' west longitude, Central Standard Time). Eastern Time is one hour earlier; Mountain Time is one, and Pacific Time two hours later. The figures given for the rising and setting of the sun and moon are reckoned for the 40th degree of latitude.

The Seasons

Spring begins March 21st, 7:18 A. M.; Summer, June 22nd, 2:38 A. M.; Autumn, September 23rd, 5:39 P. M.; Winter, December 22nd, 12:37 P. M.

Eclipses

During the year 1935 there will be seven eclipses, five of the sun and two of the moon.

1. A partial eclipse of the sun on January 5th, invisible in the United States.

2. A total eclipse of the moon on January 19th. The beginning will be generally visible in eastern Europe, Asia, Australia, on the Pacific Ocean, the eastern part of the Indian Ocean, and in the western part of North America; the ending will be generally visible in Europe, Africa, on the Indian Ocean, in Australia, on the western part of the Pacific Ocean, and in the extreme northwestern part of North America.

3. A partial eclipse of the sun on February 3rd. Generally visible in all North America.

4. A partial eclipse of the sun on June 30th. Invisible in the United States. Generally visible in the northern part of Europe and Asia.

5. A total eclipse of the moon on July 16th. The beginning will be generally visible in Africa (except in the extreme northeast), in southwestern Europe, on the Atlantic Ocean, in North America

(except in the northwest), in South America, and on the eastern part of the Pacific Ocean; the ending will be generally visible on the Atlantic Ocean, in North America (except the extreme north), in South America, and on the eastern part of the Pacific Ocean.

6. A partial eclipse of the sun on July 30th. Invisible in the United States.

7. An annular eclipse of the sun on December 25th. Invisible in the United States. Visible in the extreme southern part of South America, and on the Antarctic Ocean.

SOME HIGH LIGHTS

from the address of Dr. S. M. Cavert, General Secretary of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, Cleveland, Ohio, June 27, 1934

Today witnesses a blending of two great historic streams as old as Protestantism itself. For the Evangelical Synod contributes to this union something of a Lutheran element as well as of the Reformed. . . .

The two parties to the marriage are of approximately equal size and strength and are such impressive personalities and so perfectly matched that from it there should come a new generation inheriting the insights and graces of both progenitors, thus producing a still richer type. . . .

You have entered upon this union in such a spirit of complete mutual trust and respect that you have not had to define all the formal terms of agreement in advance. Your decision to unite and trust to the future for the working out of the implications of the union is something unprecedented in the history of American churches. . . .

HYMNS TO THE EVANGELICAL AND REFORMED CHURCH

The Pioneers

They came across the ocean wide,
Brave pioneers and bold.
To gain new freedom for their faith
And found new homes for old.
America, America,
Land of the brave and free,
Let praises ring To God our King
For glorious liberty!

They brought with them the sacred book
Of God's own truth and life;
They held it firm in pious hearts
Through years of toil and strife.
With Luther bold, and Calvin strong,
They built their churches here;
Their children now In reverence bow
And hold their mem'ry dear.

Our fathers' God, to thee we turn
In this great solemn hour,
And pray for vision and for faith,
And for thy Spirit's power.
O Jesus Christ, our risen Lord,
May we be true to thee!
Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done,
In joy and unity, Amen.

J. H. HORSTMANN, D.D.

(Tune: "America the Beautiful")

Awake, O Church United!

Awake, O Church united,
Behold your new-born day!
Full-clad in God's own armor,
Go forth to fight and pray.
Against the Church of Jesus,
'Gainst nations bleeding sore,
The legion hosts of Satan
Are set in world-wide war.

Awake, O Church united!
Redemption's day has come;
Today the hard-fought battle,
Tomorrow comes the song.
Let prayer and intercession
Like holy incense rise,
While new-born consecration
Unites in sacrifice.

Awake, O Church united!
Like one great army go,
Let every line and sector
Full-armored face the foe.
Hold high the Cross of Jesus,
Rich days of service bring;
Till all the world shall worship
The Christ, our Lord and King.

AMBROSE M. SCHMIDT, D.D.

FOREWORD

BY THE EDITORS

It is generally conceded that one of the best ways to make our legal merger vital and effective is to cultivate mutual acquaintance through the printed page. It is the hope of the editors that so many facts of interest to all the pastors and people of the new Evangelical and Reformed Church are contained in this Year Book that it will be found indispensable in every loyal household throughout our fellowship. We are preparing, therefore, for an unusually large edition, and ask for cooperation in every congregation to place this little book into every home. We feel that all who assist in doing this will be rendering a service of far-reaching value, especially in these early days of our denominational life. From now on, each one of us is to be personally interested in every Board, agency and institution listed in our Year Book. They all belong to us; we are their friends and supporters; they need our prayers and gifts and practical service; and we need them as the direct manifestations of our religious life and activity. The better we become acquainted with them all, the more effectively can they serve the Kingdom.

The Evangelical and Reformed Church is a widely-extended communion, represented in all but a few states of the Union, and with mission stations in Japan, China, India, Irak and Honduras. The register of ministers is in itself a revelation of the size and strength of our Church. To be a worthy member of such a body is at once a great privilege and a solemn responsibility, and united, we should carry forward a greater and better work than we could possibly do separately.

It is obvious that, in order to keep down the size of the new Year Book to such proportions that it could be sold at the former small price, some features which were long in use by one or the other of the merging groups had to be abandoned or greatly reduced. We trust, however, that nothing of primary importance has been given up. Either of the editors will be glad for any constructive suggestions that may add to the value and usefulness of future editions of the Year Book. Meanwhile let us pray earnestly and labor diligently to make the first year of the Union a year rich in spiritual fruitage for our church and all its members.

Paul S. Leinbach.

The suggestion of Dr. Leinbach, in the Foreword of last year's Almanac and Year Book of the Reformed Church in the United States, that the Almanac and Year Book for 1935 should be a joint publication of both the church bodies that had ratified a Plan of Union, was readily accepted by the two boards responsible for the publication interests in both groups, and the editors were authorized to proceed with such a task.

The project is entirely in line with the provision of the Plan of Union, Article IX, page 8, that "the ministers of the churches in the union shall be enrolled as ministers of the Evangelical and Reformed Church." There is no doubt that the pastors, as the natural leaders in the churches, should be the first to demonstrate in a visible form not only the inward unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace, but also the outward organic union brought about at Cleveland, June 26-27, 1934.

Accordingly, the combined ministerial roster has been prepared in such a way that the names of all ministers appear in alphabetical order without any distinction as to their previous affiliation. In this roster the approximately 700,000 members of the Evangelical and Reformed Church will see their nearly 3,000 pastors enrolled for a new and larger program of unified cooperative Kingdom work which cannot fail to inspire all the members with a new and deeper consecration, and to stimulate the entire constituency to more whole-hearted and energetic support.

Unfortunately it was not possible as yet to carry out the same idea in regard to all the different administrative activities of the united church. Even so, however, the very differences of organization and administration which are still apparent illustrate the diversity of gifts represented in the Evangelical and Reformed Church, and emphasize even more strongly the "unity of mind and heart" which caused the members of both bodies to heed the will of the exalted head of the church, whose last prayer was that his disciples should all be one.

May this first concrete undertaking of the new denomination be followed speedily by many other successful consolidations, by way of demonstrating that the union achieved at Cleveland on June 27, 1934, is indeed an organic union in the fullest sense of the word.

J. H. Horstmann.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE GENERAL SYNOD

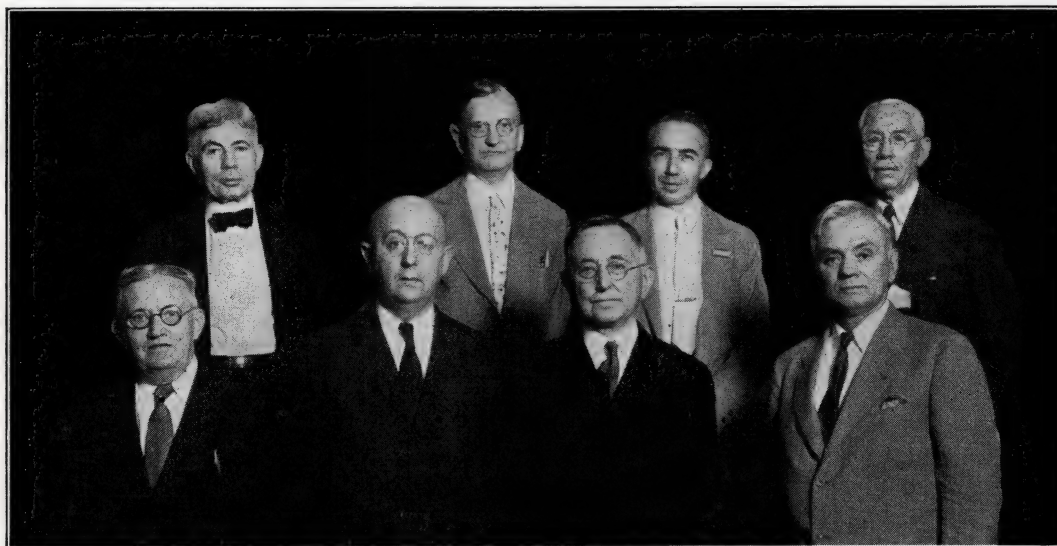

The Evangelical Synod of North America and the Reformed Church in the United States were united on the evening of June 26, 1934, and became the Evangelical and Reformed Church. On the morning and afternoon of June 27th the General Synod organized and elected officers and chose committees for the new Church. It was not advisable, and indeed it was not possible, to unite that day all of the Boards and agencies. Steps were taken, however, for complete unification during the next few years. A Committee was chosen to prepare a constitution and charter and another Committee to adjudicate matters that may require attention. The Executive Committee which was elected is the one united agency that represents and now functions for the united Church.

The Executive Committee of the General Synod is made up of twenty members—the President and Vice-President of the General Synod, and the President, four active pastors and four lay members of each of the former Churches. Dr. George W. Richards, President of the General Synod, is chairman of the Executive Committee. The two Secretaries are Dr. William E. Lampe of Philadelphia and Rev. H. P. Vieth of St. Louis. They function for the whole Church, although each has primary responsibility, especially in promotional work, with the group he formerly served.

The Executive Committee is to “promote the work of the Church and to expedite the correlation and unification of the hitherto separate agencies and activities.” The union of the two Churches was effected on the basis of confidence and mutual regard and this must be preserved. The Executive Committee must see that no time is lost in completing unification but must not allow speed or impatience to cause mistakes.

For the present the Executive Committee in relation to that part of the Church which was formerly the Evangelical Synod of North America will cooperate with the Board of Directors. For that portion which was formerly the Reformed Church in the United States, the functions are those defined in the Constitution and the actions of the General Synod: To "aid in stimulating the spiritual life of the Church; co-ordinate the work of the Boards of the General Synod; receive and adjust the budgets of those Boards and submit them to the General Synod with recommendations; cooperate with the Classes in apportioning the budget of the Boards and assist the Classes and congregations in securing the budgets; regulate the making of special appeals for funds throughout the Church; serve as a general bureau of church finances; promote the principles and practice of Christian Stewardship; prepare the order of business and the Blue Book for the meeting of the General Synod." The Executive Committee will work in harmony with the Boards by including the Secretary or some member of each Board in the membership of its Committee on Correlation and Promotion.

The General Synod referred a number of important matters to its Executive Committee. One of the most important of these is to consider the preparation of a new hymnal and book of worship. Others are relations to the Federal Council of Churches, and statements on war and peace and on indecent motion pictures.

The Executive Committee will give earnest attention to the Kingdom work of the Evangelical and Reformed Church. In no respect is the union of the two denominations into one body more significant than in the fact that it is the universal hope that the union will make possible a larger work for the Kingdom of God throughout the world. This in turn will result in a richer and fuller life of our entire membership.

FOOD FOR HEART AND MIND

It is high time for our Protestant pastors and people to wake up to the fact that there is no future for a church when its members are not enough interested in its welfare to read its publications.

To be sure, those who have been readers of the church paper for years do not need to be convinced of its power for good. In thousands of homes it has proved itself to be a real blessing. But, alas, other thousands of homes of professing Protestants today have no religious journal of any kind, and the children in such families are not trained to read and profit by the church paper, either by precept or example. As a result they read only about secular matters and lose interest in the church.

It stands to reason that, if we are to maintain a church in which educational religion and religious education are not simply phrases or theories, but actual facts, then we must have a reading people—families who are intelligently informed with regard to the activities and the needs of Christ's Kingdom. Little of the progressive and aggressive work of the Church can be expected from the homes that are without Christian literature.

One of the greatest services you can render to the cause of true religion is to inspire a love of good reading in the hearts and minds of the people. And the only genuine statesmanship is to begin with the children in the home.

This is the sort of spiritual seed-sowing that counts for most in the long run. If we really see its importance, what are we going to do about this duty of placing the church paper into every home in our Evangelical and Reformed fellowship?

Our present weekly church papers include the following: In the former Evangelical Synod, The Evangelical Herald (English), Dr. J. H. Horstmann, Editor; Der Friedensbote (German), Rev. Otto Press, Editor. In the former Reformed Church in the United States, The Reformed Church Messenger (English), Dr. Paul S. Leinbach, Editor; The Christian World (English), Dr. H. S. Gekeler, Editor; Die Kirchenzeitung (German), Dr. Carl F. Heyl, Editor.

HOME MISSIONS

THE BOARD FOR HOME MISSIONS — "E" GROUP

The major task of home missions in the Evangelical Synod has until recently been accomplished by promoting the numerical growth and the country-wide expansion of the denomination. A very large percentage of churches in the denomination owe their existence to the activities of home missions. Traditionally the work has been done among people that are related to the mother churches by ties of faith, blood and language. The language question is no longer paramount, and the denominational emphasis has largely given way to a broader idea of the missionary task.

THE SET-UP OF THE WORK

The set-up of home mission work begins with the district committees. In each of the twenty districts there is a home mission committee embracing the district president, two other pastors and three laymen. It is the business of this district committees to originate and supervise missions. They select promising fields in their respective territories, make surveys at the expense of the Board, investigate financial conditions and recommend the amount of support to be appropriated in each case. The district committees meet as frequently as necessary to carry on the work and are expected to keep in close touch with the individual mission churches. They also investigate the building projects within their territories and recommend the amount of the loans to be granted by the Church Extension Fund Board. Applications for loans from the Church Extension Fund (see page 21) must bear the signatures of the district president, the chairman of the district committee and the chairman of the Board for Home Missions.

THE BOARD

The Board for Home Missions consists of nine members, three of them being laymen. At the present time there is one woman member of the Board. It is not incorporated and meets semi-annually.

The Board is empowered to make its own investigations, supplementing the investigations and recommendations of the district committees. At the present time the Board aids 130 fields with 100 workers. There is a total church membership of 11,144, and a Sunday school enrollment of 12,204. The mission churches contribute $67,019.00 toward the salaries of their pastors and the Board has appropriated $85,437.00 for this purpose for the current year.

The total appropriations for the current year amount to about $96,000.00, including administration, publicity, missionary education and the allowances for the observance of the seventy-fifth anniversary of the home missions enterprise.

THE PROGRAM AND POLICIES

Formerly the one aim and purpose of home missions was the establishment of new churches. Missions now are urged to give community service, i.e., to put on special programs intended to meet the particular needs of the community in which the mission is located. This is the new emphasis of home missions. There are still large areas without competent religious ministry,—not only on what was formerly known as the "frontier," but all over our broad land.

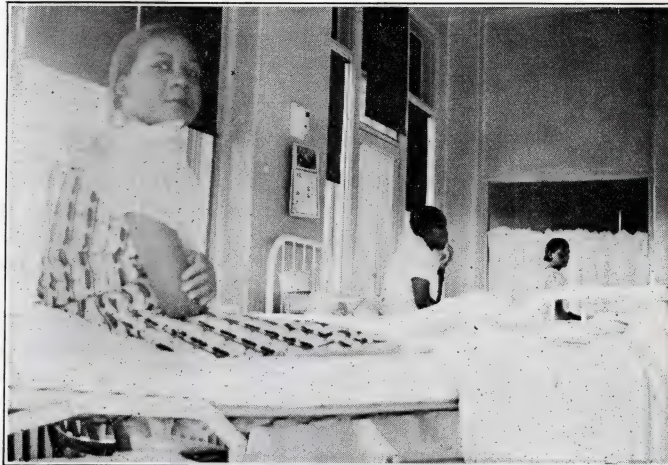

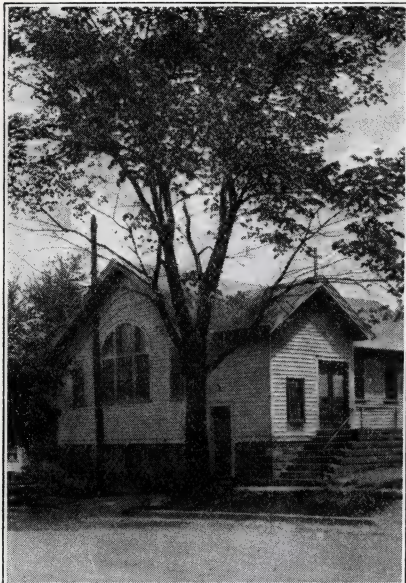

To reach these new areas Sunday school missions are being established. The Ozark missions furnish a splendid example of this new emphasis in home missions. There we have the Sunday school missions, the Daily Vacation Bible Schools, the preaching stations and the community center.

This picture would not be complete if no mention was made of the efforts to combine smaller missions or allocate them to existing churches. The union of the Synod and the Reformed Church is being tried out successfully on the home missions field. We have an Evangelical pastor at a Reformed Church mission, and a Reformed Church pastor in charge of an Evangelical mission, and we are combining two missions of the two church bodies into one mission. We are already demonstrating active cooperation.

The Board supports a number of "Special Projects," city missions, a seaman's mission in Baltimore, Md., welfare work among the fisher folk of the Back Bay territory adjacent to the mission at Biloxi, Miss., a mission on Madeline Island in Lake Superior, and an Ozark mission among the hill folk in Iron, Dent and Shannon counties, Missouri. This mission is directed by an Ozark Auxiliary Committee.

Attention should also be called to the work being done by the city mission unions and the very appreciable assistance given to various projects by the Evangelical Women's Union. Unfortunately there is no Women's Missionary Auxiliary in the Synod.

The Executive Secretary, Rev. J. J. Braun, has his office in the Synod Building, 1720 Chouteau Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

THE CHURCH EXTENSION FUND BOARD

From the very beginning stronger Evangelical churches were accustomed to aid newly organized mission churches who were unable to erect the necessary buildings. The necessity of regulating this practice as the Synod grew and appeals multiplied and became burdensome led to the creation of the Church Extension Fund at the General Conference at Evansville, Ind., in 1889. The nine members of the committee recommending the establishment of such a fund donated $25.00, which formed the nucleus of the present fund.

The Extension Fund was used at first only to assist in the erection of church edifices; aid was soon also extended for building of parsonages and Sunday school halls if these were also being used as places of worship. In 1913 the original rate of interest of four percent on church and five percent on parsonage loans was lowered two two percent and three percent, respectively, the principal to be refunded in ten annual instalments, beginning one year after receiving the loan.

The original $25.00 immediately began to grow, chiefly through special offerings contributed on the second Sunday in Lent until 1919, when the budget system was introduced, and the Extension Board shared on a percentage basis in budget receipts.

The difficulties of the last few years have greatly retarded the growth of the fund, which now amounts to some $483,000. The fund is administered by an incorporated board which co-operates closely with the Board for Home Missions.

G. A. Schmidt, Chairman.

THE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS — "R" GROUP

This is the agency in the church which stakes out new fields in which to establish churches and which aids in the support of these churches until they are able to stand upon their own feet. During its long history of over 100 years this Board has assisted, in some form or other, more than 800 of our churches. Fully two-thirds of our congregations were thus helped. The Board operates in the United States and Canada. It has 176 mission churches at present under its care, manned by 135 pastors and other workers. It ministers to six different nationalities as follows: English, German, Hungarian, Czech, Japanese and Indian.

St. John's Church, Fountain City, Neb.

The Board also assists mission churches in the erection of suitable church buildings and parsonages. This is made possible through so-called "Church-building Funds" of $500 or more each, which since 1886 have accumulated to more than $800,000. Most of this money is in the form of a revolving fund, that is, after it has rendered service in one church, it is returned to the Board and is again loaned to another mission church that may require it.

Our great mission field is in the Northwest as well as in some of our larger cities in the East and in the Middle West. There are also great opportunities among the Hungarians and the Japanese, for here the second generation is now to be reckoned with and a transition to the English language and to American customs presents a new problem which must be met.

The total budget which the General Synod designated for this work is $348,786 annually. However, only a part of this sum is actually raised by the church at large and thus the work of the Board must be severely restricted. This is greatly to be regretted, for the work of home missions forms the basis of other important activities in the church, and these cannot prosper as they should without the pioneer work which the Board of Home Missions has always been carrying forward.

The Board of Home Missions also has responsibility for the work of evangelism and of social service, which involves the winning of souls for Christ and the church and the application of the Gospel to life and its relationships. This is a work of far reaching significance and merits the full hearted support of all our people.

Chas. E. Schaeffer, Executive Secretary.

FOREIGN MISSIONS

THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS — "R" GROUP

The Reformed Church constituency of the Evangelical and Reformed Church has Missions in Japan, China and Mesopotamia, with a missionary personnel of 78, a personnel of nationals of 429, making a total missionary force of 507. The property value in these three fields is $2,163,051.00.

JAPAN

In Japan there are 45 missionaries. Associated with them are 248 Japanese workers, engaged as follows: ordained evangelists 36; unordained evangelists 35; men teachers 91; women teachers 21; women evangelists 21; kindergartners 22; other workers 22. The Japan Mission is an organic part of "The Church of Christ in Japan," a union of all the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches, the largest Protestant Church in Japan, with a total communicant membership of approximately 50,000. The Church of Christ in Japan has assigned to the Reformed Church in the United States a portion of the field around Tokyo and the six Northern States of Japan known as the "Tohoku." In our particular work we have 52 organized churches, 108 other places of meeting, 6,798 communicant members, 146 Sunday schools, 10,633 Sunday school pupils, one theological seminary, one college for men, one college for women and 10 kindergartens. The North Japan College for men has a faculty of 88 and a student body of over 1,000, the graduates numbering 2,486. In Miyagi College for women there are 43 teachers and 374 students, its graduates numbering 1,316.

CHINA

The China Mission is located in the central Province of Hunan, where we are represented by 27 missionaries. There are two organized mission stations, one in the city of Yochow in the eastern portion of Hunan and the other in the city of Shenchow in the west. Associated in the work are 146 Chinese workers: ordained evangelists 5; unordained evangelists 34; men teachers 65; women teachers 16; women evangelists 18; physicians 2; nurses 6. The China Mission is an organic part of "The Church of Christ in China," a union of sixteen denominations and the largest Protestant Church in China, with a total communicant membership of about 125,000. In the China missions there are seven organized churches, 30 other meeting places, 747 communicant members, 19 Sunday schools enrolling 1,047 pupils, one theological seminary, four boarding schools with 601 students, 14 day schools with 537 pupils, two kindergartens, five hospitals and dispensaries which treated last year 742 in-patients and 20,462 dispensary patients.

At Yochow are located Huping Middle School for boys and Ziemer Memorial Middle School for girls. At Shenchow are located Eastview Boys' School and Chen Teh Girls' School. The China mission is also associated with five union educated institutions: Central China Union Theological Seminary and Central China College, at Wuchang; Yali Senior High School and Fuh Siang Girls' High School, at Changsha; and Ginling College for women, at Nanking. Hoy Memorial Hospital is located at Yochow, and Abounding Grace Hospital at Chenchow.

MESOPOTAMIA

In Mesopotamia, or Iraq as it is now officially known, we are a part of the United Mission in Mesopotamia, where we have two missionaries associated with four ordained evangelists, seven unordained evangelists and seven women teachers. There are two organized churches, 11 other places of meeting, 295 commu-nicant members, three Sunday schools with 172 pupils. The Reformed Church also operates the American School for Boys at Baghdad, where there are four missionaries, 17 teachers and 420 students.

THE HOME CHURCH

On account of the decreasing income from the home church in the last two years the Board of Foreign Missions was compelled to make a 40% reduction in its 1934 budget. This devastating and crushing cut was loyally accepted by the missionaries and their collaborators. By this heroic sacrifice the work has been maintained during the past year; but a like sacrifice cannot be expected or endured in the year 1935. It is devoutly to be hoped that by increased offerings in this coming year the essential work of these three fields may be maintained without any loss of fundamental missionary activity.

John H. Poorman, Ass't Secretary.

THE BOARD FOR FOREIGN MISSIONS — "E" GROUP

On May 19, 1934, fifty years had passed since foreign mission work was officially begun by the Evangelical Synod. The first field was in Chhatgarh, in the Central Provinces of India, where work had been carried on by an interdenominational group since 1868. A second field was opened in the Republic of Honduras in Central America in 1921.

The Synod has assumed responsibility for an area of 11,000 square miles in India, with a population of 1,250,000. In Honduras the whole western part of the north coast is the legitimate field of the Synod.

In both fields three principal types of work have been carried on, such as evangelistic, educational and medical. To carry on this work the Synod maintains a staff of 32 missionaries in India, and 12 in Honduras. In India the missionaries are assisted by five ordained pastors, 89 catechists, 194 teachers, 25 Bible women and six Bible colporteurs. The Honduras missionaries have trained six Honduran workers for service in the field of evangelism and teaching.

A number of institutions have been established in the interests of the work. A theological seminary, a boys' high and middle school and a flourishing girls' school have been established in Raipur, India. A women's Bible training school located in Parsabader, and an English middle schools in Mahasamund and Bhatapara, together with 50 primary schools, minister to the education of the Christian and non-Christian people of the area. A fully equipped mission hospital at Tilda and a dispensary at Bistrampur, Baitalpur, Parsabader, Charpali and Khariar further the healing ministry of the Synod in India. In 1933 60,827 patients were treated and 1,276 operations were performed. A leper asylum housing 600 leper inmates is located at Chandkuri. In Honduras a co-educational school is maintained in San Pedro Sula and a training school for evangelists has newly been opened in Pinalejo.

The building of a strong indigenous church in each field is the principal objective of our missionary efforts. In India the church constituency numbers 5,326 in 11 congregations. At the close of 1933 236 people were under instruction for baptism. The 11 congregations in India together with their pastors and the American missionaries on the field form an organization known as the India Mission District. This organization carries on missionary work on its own account in the state of Phingeshwar. The church in Honduras numbers approximately 250 souls.

There are two sources of income—participation in the Synodical budget and "special designations" or free-will offerings of such individuals, societies and congregations as are willing to support the work in addition to paying their budget quotas.

During the last decade the annual expenditures of the Board for Foreign Missions have ranged between $105,000 and $183,000. In 1933 they amounted to $114,000. Private and especially designated giving has experienced a remarkable growth. The Women's Union annually adopts a project in the foreign mission fields for which its Thank-offering funds are made available. For 1934 the project of this organization is the training of Christian workers in the India field.

Direction and promotion of this work is entrusted to the Board of Foreign Missions, consisting of nine members—six pastors, three lay members, two of these being women.

On July 4 the Board lost its senior secretary, Dr. Paul A. Menzel, who had been connected with it as member, chairman and executive secretary for 39 years. The Washington office has been discontinued, and the Board's headquarters are now at 1720 Chouteau Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

F. A. Goetsch, Executive Secretary.

EDUCATION AND PUBLICATION

THE BOARD OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION — "E" GROUP

The first and primary task of the Board of Religious Education is to help bring the church as such to a new appreciation of the basic importance of Christian education in the total Christian task. This, to be sure, is not a new emphasis in the Evangelical Synod. It is interesting to consider the convictions of the early pioneers of our church in this matter. When we were much poorer than we are today and had to carry on our work under greater difficulties, our congregations not only built churches for purposes of worship but they also built school houses for purposes of education. They not only employed pastors but they also employed teachers who were men trained for their profession and who were given a place of honor and respect next to that of the pastor. Christian education was not something for Sunday morning only but was an integral part of all education and was given attention every day.

We need today to recover some of that early devotion to the task of Christian education. Our churches need buildings and equipment better adapted to educational purposes. They need teachers of religion who are not only willing to give time, but who have been given a thorough-going training for this service, which in importance ranks second to none among those sponsored by the church. These teachers must be provided with the best possible teaching guides and lesson materials. More time must be found which can be devoted to Christian education. The important problems of objectives, of content, of human psychology, of methods and techniques, must be given careful study and the best thinking and experience of the experts must be shared with those who are engaged in the task.

To all these important needs the Board of Religious Education is endeavoring to give attention. Through conventions and institutes, through public addresses and printed articles, as well as through personal correspondence and interviews, it seeks to raise the educational standards within the church and to provide such helps as will make it easier for pastors and teachers to render the best possible service to growing boys and girls and men and women. It encourages the expansion of the church school to include weekday and vacation schools as well as the Sunday school. Through its Service Library it places the best books and pamphlets on religious education at the disposal of all workers at a minimum cost. Through its series of summer Leadership Training Schools and through a carefully planned and directed program of leadership training in the local church and in community schools it provides opportunities for better training and preparation. It publishes lesson courses and teaching helps together with graded story papers and a monthly teacher's magazine. A Guide for Confirmation Instruction is being developed. The services of its staff and office are at all times available to leaders in the local church. Thus the Board of Religious Education is seeking to make Christian education vital, dynamic and central in the program of the church.

THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION — "R" GROUP

A comprehensive program of Christian education includes the Christian home, the educational activities of the local congregation, as well as those of the church as a whole, together with its educational institutions, within its scope. With this larger conception of Christian education in mind the Board of Christian Education of what was formerly the Reformed Church in the United States has been set up and organized to cover this whole field of relationships as effectively and comprehensively as possible.

The Board conceives it to be part of its responsibility, wherever possible, to quicken the religious life and influence of the home by providing and circulating Christian literature of the proper type and by assisting parents and children in every way. A thoroughgoing program of Christian education for the local church is fostered and encouraged, covering the three age groups as represented in the Children's, Young People's and the Adult Divisions of the church school and including also the many other educational activities of the congregation. The denominational program of young people's work is a vital part of this Board's program of activity and is not separately organized.

Leadership training both in relation to the local church and the summer school and camp programs is actively directed and quickened by the Board. Work is carried on in various centers under one full-time and several part-time student pastors in counseling and guiding students belonging to the church who are attending secular institutions, and in assisting them to maintain their Christian ideals and to keep in vital touch with the church.

The Board has served as the denominational Publication Board since 1844. It publishes the weekly church paper, the "Reformed Church Messenger," now 108 years old. Hymnals, pamphlets, the Almanac and Year Book and other publications are issued by it. It operates a book and church supply store for the benefit of the church.

The Board is incorporated, and it owns and operates for the church the Schaff Building, located at 1505 Race St., Philadelphia, Pa., which has served for the past 11 years as the headquarters building of the Reformed Church. This building is a modern, fire-proof, 13-story office building, approximately three floors of which are being used for church purposes. The remaining space is rented commercially. The Board does not own and operate a printing plant, but instead has had all of its printing done commercially. The Central Publishing House at Cleveland, Ohio, an institution maintained by several of the district Synods, has served as the western depository of the Board and as its sales agent within the territory of these Synods.

The membership of the Board consists of 15 ministers and elders together with three women advisory members, representing all of the Synods of the former Reformed Church. It meets annually in April or May and between sessions the active direction of its activities is entrusted to an Executive Committee consisting of six members.

The Board is organized in three separate and distinct departments known respectively as: the Department of Home and Church, the Department of Leadership Training, and the Department of Business and Real Estate.

The two departments first named are dependent upon the benevolent contributions of the Church for the carrying on of their activities. The profits from the Department of Business and Real Estate have been devoted to the financing of the Schaff Building.

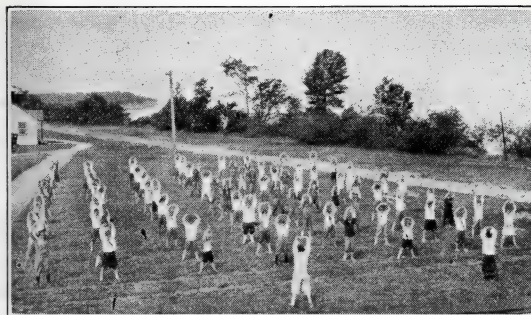

Rev. Paul S. Leinbach, D.D., Litt.D., is President of the Board and editor of the "Reformed Church Messenger." For the past four years Rev. Henry I. Stahr, D.D., has been serving as Executive Secretary. He has resigned to accept the presidency of Hood College. Rev. C. A. Hauser, Ph.D., is head of the Department of Home and Church. Rev. A. S. Bromer, D.D., head of the Department of Business and Real Estate, who was connected with the Board for almost three decades, resigned during 1934 because of physical disability. Rev. Fred D. Wentzel is Director of Leadership Training in the Local Church. Rev. E. G. Krampe, D.D., serves as field worker in the Synod of the Northwest. Curtailments made necessary by lessened receipts during the past two years required the dropping of the director of young people's work, the director of the children's division and the field worker in the Ohio Synod.

The statistical summary of the church school work of the former Reformed Church during the year 1933 is as follows: Number of schools, 1,677; officers and teachers, 31,712; enrollment, Children's Division, 96,306; Young People's Division, 95,058; Adult Division, 105,931; total enrollment, incl. officers and teachers, 354,628. Pupils in full church membership, 156,368; Teacher Training students, 4,130.

Henry I. Stahr, Executive Secretary.

THE EVANGELICAL LEAGUE — "E" GROUP

The cooperative youth work of the Evangelical Synod is carried on under the auspices of a denominational organization called the Evangelical League. The administration of this group is in the hands of a president, vice-president, recording secretary, and treasurer, along with four additional members at large. This Board appoints the superintendents of the six departments and nominates an executive secretary whose election is ratified by the General Council of the denomination. Under an arrangement that has prevailed for some years the executive secretary divides his time between the work of the Evangelical League and the Board of Religious Education.

The Evangelical League Board meets in regular session, at least once annually, to hear reports, to plan its work and to pass upon recommendations by the executive secretary. The officers form an executive committee and act as occasion arises for the whole organization. The cost of administration is provided in part by an appropriation from the general denominational budget as arranged by the General Council, and in part by membership dues and gifts from local groups as well as some special contributions from interested individuals. An extensive range of services is offered through the League agency. These services include consultation with or visits from the executive secretary on matters pertaining to young people's programs or problems in the local church, the issuing of leaflets and literary helps on various phases of young people's work, the promoting of worth-while projects both in local church groups and throughout the denomination and the planning and organizing of a national convention for youth every four years.

Since its organization in 1902 at Cleveland, the League has been instrumental in stimulating the youth of the Evangelical Synod as a whole to carry out the following projects: the erection of a church building at Raipur, India; the erection of a home mission church, the inauguration of a weekly young people's periodical called The Evangelical Tidings; the building of a library at Elmhurst College as a memorial to the Evangelical youth who died in the war; the raising of a book fund of $4,000 for Eden Theological Seminary; the building of a beautiful student chapel at Columbia, Missouri, one of the most unique and useful buildings of its kind in the country.

In the foregoing paragraphs the name League has referred to the denominational Board with its executive secretary having headquarters at the Synodical offices in St. Louis. But the young people's groups as organized in the local churches are also called Evangelical Leagues. At the present time there are about 1000 of these Leagues in the entire denomination, representing in round numbers about 30,000 young people. The program of each of these local Leagues is carried out in most instances through the assistance of six department superintendents on the National League Board. These departments are Life Work Guidance; Devotional Life; Missionary Education; Fellowship-Recreation; Social Service, and Junior-Intermediate. Not only the personal counsel of each of the superintendents of these departments is made available to local Leagues, each department also supplies special literature and suggestive programs. The Evangelical Tidings is a most efficient medium for the National Board to exercise its clearing-house functions and to pass on helps and suggestions to local groups. A seventh department of the National Board is the Student Department. Its superintendent addresses himself directly to Evangelical young people in college and endeavors to cooperate with student pastors in keeping Evangelical youth in touch with their church. A bi-monthly periodical, the "Evangelical Student," is sent to all college students.

The young people of the Evangelical Synod have learned to cooperate amongst themselves, and are eager to join hands with the young people of the Reformed Church in a great Fellowship of Youth. Together they may be a power that they could not hope to be separately.

O. P. Schroerluke, Executive Secretary, Evangelical League.

THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION — "E" GROUP

The Board of Publication directs the publication of periodicals and books, as ordered by the General Conference. It promotes the sale of religious literature and other reading material, conducts the business of Eden Publishing House through its manager, establishes and conducts branches thereof and concerns itself with the development and promotion of the publishing interests of the denomination for the primary purpose of stimulating kingdom interests. Subject to the approval of the General Council it outlines the program and determines the policies of its business for the ensuing year.

The Board consists of 15 members, of whom four pastors and four lay members are elected by the General Conference, three of whom are to be residents of the State of Missouri. Subject to the approval of the General Council, the Board of Directors of the Synod elects six members, at least three of whom must be residents of the State of Missouri. One additional member is elected by the Board of Religious Education.

The Board comprises two committees, the Literary Committee, and the Board of Trustees of Eden Publishing House. Each of these consists of five members. The Board of Trustees constitutes the Executive Committee of the Board of Publication and conducts the business affairs of Eden Publishing House. The Literary Committee passes upon all synodical publications except periodical and such publications whose adoption is reserved to the General Conference. It studies the need of the Synod as far as publications are concerned, makes suggestions for changes and prepares or has prepared such new publications as in their judgment are required.

The editors of the "Friedensbote," "Evangelical Herald" and "Theological Magazine," and the General Manager of Eden Publishing House are directly responsible to the Board of Publications.

Eden Publishing House, where the work of the Board of Publications centers, consists of three main departments: Subscription, Merchandise and Printing.

Copies of the General Catalog, the "Quiver" (house organ), as well as any further information will be gladly furnished upon request. Address all correspondence to Eden Publishing House, 1712-24 Chouteau Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

MINISTERIAL PENSIONS AND RELIEF

BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF — "R" GROUP

Ministerial Relief is a debt of love, which our church owes our aged and disabled ministers and the widows of our ministers for services rendered. Ministerial Relief is not charity. Charity is a gift given to a person who did not render service for a season to the giver. Ministerial Relief is the salary of a minister continued by the entire church after he no longer can serve actively. It is simple justice and the expectation of society today, as are all old age and disability pensions.

General Synod's Board of Ministerial Relief cares lovingly for our veteran ministers and the widows of our ministers to the extent of its ability. It is the "Big Brother Board." It either gives all our church contributes to our veteran ministers and the widows of our ministers, or reserves for them what our churches contribute for this purpose. The Board uses no contributions of our church for its overhead expenses or any other object than Ministerial Relief grants.

THE RELIEF DEPARTMENT

Our church helps our Relief annuitants through the apportionment, the receipts of which have always been too small to care for them adequately.

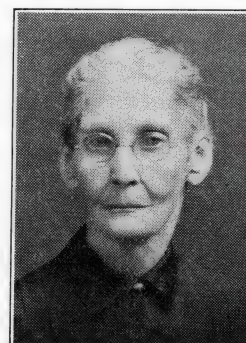

Since 1930 our church by its decreased giving each year compelled the Board to decrease the Relief annuities from $77,524.14 in 1930 to $44,833.06 in 1933, or 42%, which has placed a heavy financial burden upon the shoulders of our veteran ministers and their widows, and has worked a great hardship for them. Let us therefore pay the full apportionment of $80,137.20 a year for Ministerial Relief. "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

OUR SUSTENTATION FUND

Our Sustentation Fund was established by the General Synod in 1917. The membership consists of ordained ministers, licensed ministers, and lay missionaries. The average dues range from $17.13 at twenty-one to $93.69 at sixty. No member pays dues after he is seventy or disabled. He then receives his benefits, which are $500 at seventy; or $100 for the first five years of service, plus $10 for each additional year of service at disability. However, the Board can pay only one-half of these benefits at the present time, because our church has provided only one-half of the money needed.

Since our church is slow in raising its part, a number of congregations are providing additional benefits for their pastors.

OUR ANNUITANTS AND THEIR ANNUITIES

During 1933 the Board, through the Relief department, cared for 88 ministers, to whom it gave $18,847.07; and 174 widows of ministers, to whom it gave $25,895.99. During 1933 the Board, through the Sustentation Fund, also gave 31 seventy-year ministers $6,748.09; 28 disabled ministers $3,939.92; 73 widows of ministers $6,629.81; and four orphans of ministers $149.50. On July 1, 1934, the Sustentation Fund had 873 members.

MINISTERIAL RELIEF IS CHRISTIAN

Ministerial Relief in scriptural (1 Cor. 9: 1-14). Christianity is a great power, which causes our Federal Government, our states, and our larger corporations to care well for their aged and disabled employees, and should cause our church to care as well for our veteran ministers. Our veteran ministers would be happy indeed, if our church would care as well for them as does the United States for our soldiers, sailors, and civil service employees; many states for their teachers; and the railroads for their workers. Ministerial Relief, moreover, is ethical, a first obligation of our church, and is greatly needed and much appreciated.

James W. Meminger, Secretary.

BOARD OF PENSION AND RELIEF — "E" GROUP

The object of the Board of Pension and Relief is to lovingly care for our aged and disabled pastors, their orphans and widows. In order to accomplish this purpose the Pension Fund was organized among the pastors of the Evangelical Synod in 1910. Previous to that time an organization had existed which extended limited relief to retired pastors and widows but which proved insufficient in most cases. In 1910 the Fund was organized along the lines of pension systems and is gradually working toward that ultimate goal, when a pension commensurate with the service given and the demands of life can be paid.

The ministry is a divine calling and the men whom we train for this remarkable calling become the spiritual teachers and leaders of our church. They give of their time and talents in the devoted service to the church and her Lord and in most cases are recompensed in such a small way that there can be no thought of accumulating anything for the years of the sunset of life. Consequently it becomes the sacred duty of the church to not only take of their services during the prime years of life but to also provide for them in old age; to make the last days of these men and women as comfortable as possible; to show unto them the due appreciation of the church for whom they have labored and which they have builded.

MEMBERSHIP

Every pastor and missionary of the Synod is eligible to membership in the Fund and contributes to its support by paying an annual premium, set at the time of his entrance into membership of the Fund according to his age. These premiums vary from $16.00 per year to the maximum of $40.00 per year. At the time of its organization the Fund also called into existence an endowment Fund so as to guarantee its perpetuity and also to provide additional income for pensions. Due to a campaign held several years ago, this endowment has now reached the sum of $885,877. The interest from these investments is used to pay pensions. To these two amounts is added that proportion from the synodical budget income which the General Council grants to it. The income from these three sources constitutes the available resources of the Fund each year for the discharge of its obligation to its pensioners.

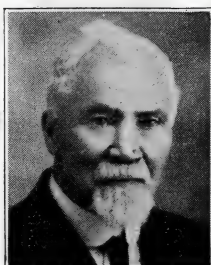

PENSION AMOUNTS

The amount of pension given to each individual is determined by the number of years of his membership and in the case of widows by the years of membership of the husband. Widows receive 80% of what their husbands would receive. Unfortunately the amounts now being paid are not yet sufficient to enable those who have no additional income to live from the pension alone. This caused the Fund to establish a Relief Fund out of which additional amounts are added to the pension in order to make the available amount large enough for a livelihood. The funds for relief come directly from the apportionment of the synodical budget and are therefore quite limited. It is hoped that the day may arrive in the near future that the pension amounts will be large enough so that no additional relief will be necessary.

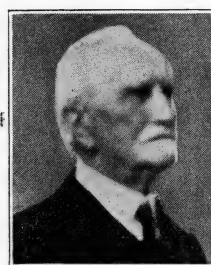

During 1934 the Board paid pensions to 188 pastors, 241 widows and 21 children. A survey shows that some of these pastors and widows are over ninety years of age, while on the other hand some of the disabled pastors are still in the early years of manhood, stricken by the wayside and dependent on us for their daily bread. It is beyond the power of imagination to conceive what most of them would do were it not for this remarkable organization within the church that reaches out its hand to assist the feeble walk of the aged, provide for the widow and orphan, and succor the broken and maimed. During the year 1933 the Board was privileged to pay out a total sum of $108,088 in pensions and relief.

PASTORS' HOMES

Faced with the problem that oftentimes a pastor upon retirement has no home, the Fund has established two retired pastors' homes; one at Bensenville, Illinois, and the other at Blue Springs, Mo.

Wolf Memorial Home
for
Retired Pastors at Bensenville, Ill.

Both of them are on the so-called cottage plan; each couple or widow has a single cottage for their own use and can remain in the same until the close of life if desired. Both are in smaller communities, thus affording a quietude and a simple life, such as would appeal to older folks. The Home at Bensenville, near Chicago, has five cottages (one a duplex) while the Home at Blue Springs, near Kansas City, Mo., has eleven cottages (one a duplex). In the establishment of these two homes the Board has accomplished a remarkable piece of work.

FUTURE PLANS

Since the greater part of the money now being spent for pensions comes from the synodical budget, it is very important that all churches make special effort to raise the budget. It is the aim of the Fund to continue to increase the endowment until it shall reach such proportions that the income from this source shall make possible the payment of a pension, which will enable the recipient to live comfortably on the same. Until this is accomplished the Fund will have to continue to lean heavily upon the budget income. We need also to cultivate a larger circle of friends and supporters among the constituency of our church who will materially aid the cause by special gifts and legacies. The Board feels confident that as its work becomes better known, our church will become deeply grateful toward its aged pastors and their widows and respond even more generously than in the past. These veterans have served us gallantly and without shirking—we dare not fail them!

Silas P. Bittner, Chairman.

WE ARE PROUD OF OUR SCHOOLS

The Evangelical and Reformed Church has every reason to be proud of its institutions of higher learning at home and abroad. The list of educational institutions given in this Year Book is most impressive and should bring to every thoughtful reader a sense of profound gratification. The seminaries, colleges and academies are indeed of a high type, and bring to us a remarkable story of sacrificial devotion.

The quality of these schools is maintained not only by the self-denial of their faithful supporters throughout our own and other Churches and the wise management of Boards, who give unselfishly of their time and effort, but also by the fidelity of the faculties, often but meagerly supported, who give their best to uphold the finest traditions and to advance the standards of these institutions of learning.

The endowment of these schools of the Church should be greatly increased so they may be enabled in the future, as in the past, to render a service that is second to none in the educational world. Thank God for the generous men and women who have remembered this basic work of education by gifts and legacies. We pray that many more may be moved to make provision in their benevolent giving and in their wills for one or more of these institutions of our Church.

EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS OF THE EVANGELICAL AND REFORMED CHURCH

"R" GROUP

There have been for a good many years three Schools of Theology in the Reformed Church: (1) The Theological Seminary at Lancaster, Pa.; (2) The Central Theological Seminary at Dayton, Ohio, and (3) The Theological Department of the Mission House, at Plymouth, Wis. Central Seminary has now been combined with the Eden Theological Seminary, at Webster Groves, Mo.

As for high grade colleges, there are seven in this country and two in Japan. Franklin and Marshall College, at Lancaster, Pa., the oldest of our institutions of learning, is a combination of Franklin College, founded in Lancaster and named after that great American, Benjamin Franklin, and Marshall College, founded at Mercersburg, Pa., and named after John Marshall, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States. This is our only college in this country which is for men only. Heidelberg College, at Tiffin, Ohio; Catawba College, Salisbury, N. C.; The Mission House, Plymouth, Wis., and Ursinus College, Collegeville, Pa., are co-educational institutions. Cedar Crest College, at Allentown, Pa., and Hood College, at Frederick, Md., are for girls only. North Japan College, at Sendai, Japan, which is the largest of all our institutions, is for men only, and Miyagi College, also at Sendai, is for girls only.

The denomination has also fostered three academies or preparatory schools for boys in this country: Franklin and Marshall Academy, Lancaster, Pa.; Mercersburg Academy, Mercersburg, Pa., and Massanutten Academy (a military school) at Woodstock, Va. Across the sea we have also the Huping Middle School and Ziemer Memorial School, at Yochow, China; the Eastview Boys' School and Chenteh Girls' School, at Shenchow, China, and the American School for Boys, at Baghdad, Iraq. At Neillsville, Wis., we have also a flourishing Indian School. In connection with the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., we have also helped to support for more than a quarter of a century Tennent College of Christian Education, in Philadelphia. All these institutions of learning are a constant challenge to our loyalty and generosity.

"E" GROUP

Eden Theological Seminary opened its doors to students in 1850 at Marthasville, Mo. In 1883 it became necessary to relocate and new buildings were erected on the outskirts of St. Louis, on St. Charles Rock Road. When this neighborhood became industrialized the institution was rebuilt at Webster Groves, Mo., where the new buildings were dedicated Oct. 11, 1925.

Elmhurst College, Elmhurst, Ill., founded in 1871, grew out of two schools established during the 'sixties. It is coeducational and ranks with the best institutions of its class in the country.

Complete information as to the present status of all institutions of the Evangelical and Reformed Church will be found on page 71.

CHARITABLE INSTITUTIONS OF THE EVANGELICAL AND REFORMED CHURCH

"R" GROUP

The charitable institutions of the Reformed Church in the United States include five Orphans' Homes, one Hospital, and five Homes for the Aged. Bethany Orphans' Home, located at Womelsdorf, Pa., in the Eastern Synod, which celebrated its 71st anniversary in August, 1934, is the oldest and largest of our orphanages, having at the last report 248 children in the Home. St. Paul's Orphans' Home, at Greenville, Pa., in the Pittsburgh Synod, has had as its Superintendent for the last quarter of a century the Rev. A. M. Keifer, D.D., who becomes Superintendent Emeritus after this long and faithful service in which he has helped to care for and prepare for life 739 dependent children. Rev. Charles L. Noss has been challenged to be his successor. The Fort Wayne Orphans' Home, located at Fort Wayne, Ind., in the Midwest Synod, has during the past year secured as its new Superintendent the Rev. Athniel Steinecker. The Nazareth Orphans' Home, Rockwell, N. C., and the Hoffman Orphanage, Littlestown, Pa., are both located in the Synod of the Potomac. All of these orphanages are well equipped for the important work committed to them, and have been gladly sustained by the free will offerings and bequests of the people.

The Fairview Park Hospital is located in Cleveland, Ohio, under the superintendency of Rev. Philip Vollmer, Jr. Beginning in 1892 as "The Society for the Christian Care of the Sick and Needy," it was incorporated in 1894. Today the Hospital has 113 beds with 34 beds in the Nurses Home, and renders annually more than 25,000 days' care in the Hospital, with over 18,000 visits in the free dispensary. All bills are paid, and the Hospital has about $150,000 in Endowment and Building Funds. The backbone of the growth, strength and spirit of Fairview has always come from the congregations and ministry of the Reformed Church. The School of Nursing is fully accredited by the State of Ohio, and has the regular three-year course, leading to the degree of R.N., Registered Nurse. The present enrollment is 61. Plans are under way for enlargement and improvements which will probably mean the addition of between 30 and 40 beds.

The Homes for the Aged include Phoebe Home, the Old Folks' Home of Eastern Synod, which is located at Allentown, Pa.; The Home for the Aged, at Upper Sandusky, Ohio; St. Paul's Old Folks' Home, located near St. Paul's Orphans' Home, at Greenville, Pa.; The Reformed Church Home for the Aged, at Wyncote, a suburb of Philadelphia, which is owned by the Philadelphia Classis; and Homewood, the Old Folks' Home of the Synod of the Potomac, located at Hagerstown, Md.

The value of the property of these charitable institutions amounts to several million dollars, but their good works are incalculable, and some of the most devoted spirits in the denomination are living their lives lovingly into the work of these institutions.

CONFERENCE OF EVANGELICAL CHARITIES

This organization was begun in 1908 as a conference on deaconess work, and later grew into a federation of Deaconess Hospitals, with the aim of systematizing and unifying the work of these institutions. In 1921 steps were taken to reorganize, so as to include other institutions doing charity work, and in 1923 the constitution was revised to make this possible. Following this larger purpose, the present name was adopted in 1925.

The meetings are devoted to the discussion of spiritual, technical and administrative topics. For several years reports on the medical missionary work in India and Honduras have also found a place on the program, as well as social service and general welfare work. The 1934 convention was held in Chicago, Oct. 3-4, 1934. There are now affiliated with the Federation 22 institutions of various types, with a total property value of $4,995,569.

A table giving the most important information concerning all the institutions of charity in the Evangelical and Reformed Church will be found on page 72 in the Directory Section.

MEN'S WORK

THE REFORMED CHURCHMEN'S LEAGUE

Men's work was on the up-grade during the past year. Born in the noblest spirit of helpfulness and loyalty to the church, built on a good foundation of faith, and sanctified by sacrifices of godly men, who sought not their own, but that which is Christ's and his Kingdom's. The Reformed Churchmen's League has had a good beginning. Squire J. Q. Truxal, the first leader, has built himself a memorial in directing the work along spiritual lines. We regret that he was obliged to lay down his work early in 1933, because of failing health.

During the past year, the League has had a commendable growth in almost all sections of the church, having increased 35% in the number of chapters and slightly more in membership.

The League has passed the hundred mark in number of chapters and is well on its way to an enlarged life. Many group meetings and classical conventions have been held and Synodical and classical committees are beginning to plan for promotion in their affairs. Headquarters are in the Schaff Building, 1505 Race Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

The League has the good will of the Synods, classes, pastors and laymen and has already performed a real service in bringing the men to the front in all kinds of service, local and denominational.

The League has no funds, receives no support from the denominational budgets, and is totally dependent upon personal gifts and contributions from the various chapters. This is a serious handicap and obstructs progress.

Special emphasis is laid upon the educational process in the study of monthly topics and in the consideration of the principles of evangelism, missions and stewardship.

No work in the church is of greater promise at this time than that of coordinating the manpower of the churches and having men pool and apply their abilities in cooperation in Kingdom work.

During the coming year, definite plans will be worked out by the League and the Brotherhood, by which these authorized agencies can work together and eventually be unified, as should be done with every enterprise in the united church.

Aggressive work is being planned and this first year of our common life and endeavor should witness a revival of enthusiasm and decided advance on the part of our laymen.

J. G. M. Darms, Executive Secretary.

THE EVANGELICAL BROTHERHOOD

The Evangelical Brotherhood was organized in 1913 and now includes 500 local organizations, with about 25,000 members. Local brotherhoods are organized into regional and district federations, of which there are 24.

The object of the Brotherhood is to enlist and unite men for larger Kingdom service in the congregation, the community, the denomination and the world at large by means of study, supplication and support.

The activities include the study of personal, church, social, national, racial and international problems by means of the "Monthly Activity Program," reading courses, rallies and conventions; the promotion of family devotions, church and Sunday school attendance, Bible study, evangelism and men's retreats; missionary study and support; presentation and promotion of Christian stewardship, social service activities and boys' work.

The administration of the Evangelical Brotherhood is in the hands of a Board of Directors elected jointly by the General Conference and the biennial convention of the Brotherhood, the last, Tenth National Convention, was held at Milwaukee, Wis., August 21-24, 1934.

Within the congregation the Brotherhood unites, instructs, inspires and directs the men for definite Kingdom purposes, plans and projects.

Within the denomination the Brotherhood unites and trains the men in the larger tasks of the church and aims to enlist the whole man-power of the church for denominational and world-wide Kingdom service.

A Student Support Fund was recently established for the aid of theological students at our schools.

The motto of the Brotherhood is "One is your Master, even Christ; and all ye are Brethren." The Brotherhood song is "Rise Up, O Men of God." The colors are blue and white. The emblem stands for body, mind and soul, also for the local brotherhood organization, the Federation and the national Brotherhood, our three units.

The Evangelical Brotherhood gladly welcomes the day when it shall be one with the Reformed Churchmen's League.

H. L. Streich, Executive Secretary.

WOMEN'S WORK

THE WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY — "R" GROUP

The Woman's Missionary Society of General Synod can report another year of uninterrupted work. The year has been marked not by new features of work, but rather by steady progress along lines already begun. The workers are alert in careful planning to find the best methods to compass the needs and to meet the challenge of these continually changing times.

The annual meeting of the Cabinet was held in Cleveland, Ohio, in June, 1934, giving opportunity to have the organization represented at the memorable and historic occasion of the merger and organization of the Evangelical and Reformed Church. It also made it possible to have several very helpful and profitable discussion periods with the Executive Board of the Women's Union of the Evangelical Synod. As a result, a committee of seven was appointed from each organization to plan ways, means and methods for correlating the women's work in the denomination. This joint committee had its first meeting in Elmhurst College in October.

The Woman's Missionary Society also promotes the Girls' Missionary Guild and the Mission Band work among the children. A thorough missionary education program is prepared annually and put to general use. A marked increase in members, interest and gifts is the encouraging result. A budget of $37,500.00 and a Thank-offering challenge for $45,000.00 were adopted for the current year. These funds are distributed through the Board of Home Missions, the Board of Foreign Missions and the Board of Christian Education.

Last year a contribution of $6,000.00 was given to the Pleasant Valley Mission at Dayton, Ohio. A gift of $5,500.00 was given to the Foreign Board for the Dr. Allen Bartholomew Memorial Fund.

The Department of Stewardship is growing in interest, which manifested itself in the increased gifts and Thank-offering given last year. The triennial meeting will be held at Greensburg, Pa., May 21-25, 1935.

The total receipts for the past year were $111,827.00. Of this amount $88,548.00 were given to the Home and Foreign Boards. The balance was distributed to the Board of Christian Education, Educational Aid and Interdenominational Work.

EVANGELICAL WOMEN'S UNION

The Evangelical Women's Union is the official women's department of the Evangelical Synod. Organized in Cincinnati in 1921, it has grown into 45 local federations and 11 district unions. There are at present 1,334 societies with 76,416 members.

The administration is in the hands of a Board of Directors jointly elected by the General Conference of the Synod and the quadrennial convention of the Women's Union. Eight women and two pastors make up this Board.

The purpose of the Women's Union is to unite and enlist all women of the church in the promotion of the whole program of the church, locally and denominationally.

The objectives and activities include Christian education, devotional life, missionary education, Christian stewardship, social welfare and Christian citizenship.

A Monthly Program is issued each year with an educational and inspirational subject for each meeting of the year.

Among the annual projects are: World Day of Prayer, Evangelical Day of Prayer for Missions on Ascension Day, Lenten Quiet Hour service, Student Aid Support in June, Thank-offering presented four times a year, mission study classes and reading courses, World Friendship Among Children, Church Paper Week in October, support of benevolent institutions in December and establishment of family devotions. The Women's Union also promotes church and Sunday school attendance, visitation of sick and shut-ins, parent training, community welfare, social justice, interracial relations, and world peace.

Contributions in 1933 for support and projects of the Women's Union, $20,522.19; for all other local and denominational purposes, $109,844.31; total, $130,366.50.

Literature on all Departments of Work and projects of the Women's Union are available at small cost. Some is distributed free.

The fifth National Convention was held in Buffalo in June, 1933, with 800 present. In 1935 Officers' Conferences in various areas of the country will be held.

The Women's Union is supported by the Synodical budget and by annual dues of 10c per member.

H. L. Streich, Executive Secretary.

CENTRAL PUBLISHING HOUSE of the Reformed Church in the U. S. has served the Church faithfully and well during the past 77 years. Founded by the Fathers about the time when Heidelberg College, the Synod of the Northwest, and the Mission House were organized, it was built up from very small beginnings through the self-sacrificing labors of these men.

It may be said that the development of the Church in the middle and far West of our country would have been almost impossible without the faithful services of Central Publishing House.

Like most institutions of the (former) Reformed Church, it is under the direct supervision of a number of District Synods, viz., the Synod of the Northwest, Ohio Synod, the Synod of the Midwest, and Eastern Synod.

Central Publishing House should have the united support of the Church. Especially the pastors and congregations of its constituency are cordially requested for a continuance of their support when ordering requirements for Church and Sunday School supplies.

MINISTERS OF THE EVANGELICAL AND REFORMED CHURCH WHO HAVE BEEN CALLED TO THEIR REWARD

October 1, 1933 — September 30, 1934

ALSPACH, REV. CHARLES B., D.D., born near Thornville, O., Aug. 20, 1861, and died in Jenkintown, Pa., June 15, 1934. Graduated from Heidelberg University, Tiffin, O., in 1886. Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., Steubenville, O., for 2 years, then entered Ursinus School of Theology, Collegeville, Pa. Served at Pleasantville, Pa.; became principal of the Academy at Ursinus; then served the following charges: Danville, Pa.; Messiah, Philadelphia; Mt. Hermon, Philadelphia. For many years was Stated Clerk, Treasurer of Philadelphia Classis, and served on Board of Home Missions. Forced to resign the pastorate because of failing eyesight, became superintendent of the Home for the Aged, Wyncote, Pa. He was married to Miss Lizzie Varwig in 1889, and is survived by his wife, three daughters and three sons: Mrs. Harold Slack, Mrs. Elizabeth Pommer, Miss Helen V., Chas. H., Dr. Russell K., and George S. Funeral services held June 19 in Mt. Hermon Church. Interment in a crypt in the mausoleum in Ivy Hill Cemetery, Philadelphia. See Messenger, Aug. 9, 1934.

BARTHOLOMEW, REV. ALLEN REVELLEN, D.D., born Sept. 16, 1855, Dannersville, Pa. Graduate, Lancaster Seminary, 1877. Received the following degrees: A.M. and D.D., by Franklin and Marshall College; D.Theo., Berne University, Switzerland, and LL.D., by Ursinus College. Ordained, 1877. Served Churches in Hummelstown, Jonestown, Pottsville, and Allentown, Pa. Became Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions and continued in that office until his death, more than 30 years. In 1878 married Miss Maria S. Karch, who died in 1906. Children: Jos. Bartholomew, Mrs. Ruth A. Nuss, Mrs. Mary MacDonald and Mrs. Grace Clayton. Married Miss Julia Hall, Bedford, Pa., in 1908. Visited mission fields all over the world and held important offices in the Reformed Church and in interdenominational organizations. President, General Synod, 1926-9. Died after a brief illness at his home, Mount Airy, Pa., Nov. 27, 1933. It is doubtful if any man in the history of our country has rendered a longer or more faithful service in the cause of foreign missions. Survived by wife and four children. Funeral at Christ Church, Philadelphia, Nov. 29. Interment, Mt. Lebanon Cemetery, Lebanon, Pa. See Messenger, Dec. 21, 1933.

BLEIBTREU, REV. EDWARD L., born Oct. 1, 1861, in Germany. Studied at the Lutheran Seminary at Breklum, coming to the United States Aug. 3, 1885. He was ordained on March 26, 1886, at Salem Church, Quincy, Ill. He first served the two churches in and near Farina, Ill. and on Aug. 3, 1887, was married to Miss Katherine Meyer. He also ministered to churches in and near Cape Girardeau and organized Christ Church there. Since 1896 he was minister of Carondelet Evangelical Church, St. Louis, and also organized Bethesda Church, St. Louis County. A member of the Board of Directors of the Deaconess Hospital and also of the Board for Home Missions. Died Friday, Aug. 31, 1934. Funeral Sept. 3. Survived by his widow and four children, Mrs. Emma Heidemann, Paul C., Marie, and Edward E. Bleibtreu, one daughter-in-law and one son-in-law. Herald, Oct. 4, 1934. p. 639.

BOEHM, REV. FREDERICK, born March 17, 1854, in Cedarburg, Wis. Graduating from Martin Luther College, Buffalo, N. Y., he was ordained in August, 1877, and in November of that year was married to Miss Henrietta Ludwig. After serving churches in Freistadt, Wis. and Fraser, Mich., he joined the Evangelical Synod in 1904 and since then ministered to Evangelical churches in Howard City and Adrian, Mich., Francesville and Urbana, Ind., and Francisco, Mich., until 1926, when he retired to live with his children in Grand Rapids, Mich. B. "E" GROUP

Evangelical people desiring to make a bequest in favor of the Evangelical Synod of North America, or any one of its boards or institutions, should be careful to do this in the manner prescribed by law. Where several boards or institutions are to be remembered, a separate paragraph beginning "I give and bequeath," etc., should be made for each. The following form is suggested where no lawyer is available for counsel.

I hereby give and bequeath to the Evangelical Synod of North America, of which Mr. F. A. Keck, St. Louis, Missouri, is treasurer, (for use of—insert here the particular Board which it is desired shall receive the use of the bequest, or if no preference is had, this portion of the bequest may be omitted) the sum of $_____, and the receipt of the Treasurer thereof shall be sufficient discharge for my Executor.

For list of Boards and correct names see pages 53-55.

The will should be attested by three witnesses (in some states only two are required) who should write opposite their names their places of residence, (in cities, the street and number). The following form of attestation will answer for every state in the Union: "Signed, sealed, published, and declared by the said (name of testator) as his last will and testament, in presence of us, who at the request of the said (name of testator), and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses." Some states require the will to be made at least two months before death.

Any information concerning such legacies or bequests should be communicated to the General Treasurer, Mr. F. A. Keck, 1720 Chouteau Ave., St. Louis, Missouri.

CHURCH REGISTER — "E" GROUP

List of congregations served by pastors of the "E" group according to districts. Those designated with * are not in formal membership with the Synod. The name of the town or city is given first, then that of the congregation, and finally that of the pastor. Corrected to October 1, 1934.

The † indicates that the post-office address of the pastor differs from the name of the place here given. Look up the pastor's address in the clerical register pages.

Franklin and Marshall College

Lancaster, Pennsylvania

ESTABLISHED 1787

Offers Liberal Courses in The Arts and Sciences

Franklin and Marshall College offers complete four-year courses of study, leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, and Bachelor of Science in Economics.

The Faculty consists of men of profound and accurate scholarship, who hold that the upbuilding of mind and character is the chief function of the college, and care for the individual development of each student.

Seven new buildings have been erected.

The "Fackenthal Laboratories" offer most complete equipment for work in the Sciences for pre-medical students. A course in Economics and Business Administration is especially adapted for students preparing for business life. The Plan of Comprehensive Final Examinations enriches the curriculum and provides for the most modern needs in education.

The new indoor Swimming Pool completes a very thorough equipment for athletics.

St. Paul's Orphans' and Old Folks' Home is managed by a Board of Directors elected by the Pittsburgh Synod of the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

The Orphans' Home is located on a farm of 425 acres near Greenville, Pennsylvania. The Old Folks' Home is located on a beautiful residential street in Greenville.

The town of Greenville is located 85 miles north of Pittsburgh, Pa., 75 miles east of Cleveland, Ohio, 65 miles south of Erie, Pa., and 150 miles south of Buffalo, New York.

Both these Homes are ready to serve Evangelical and Reformed Churches located within its territory and also solicit cooperation and financial support.

CHICAGO CITY MISSION WORK

in Public Hospitals and Institutions done by the Evangelical and Reformed Church among our unfortunate brothers and sisters in Christ

The City Mission Work consists of furnishing:

- a) Religious Ministry
- b) Christian Fellowship
- c) Deeds of Benevolence

We invite your gifts and prayers for this much needed and greatly worthwhile work of love especially in these hard times. Christ says: "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me." Matt. 25:40.

Please, send all gifts to Mr. Frank C. Teuber, Treasurer, 5419 Hutchinson Ave., Chicago, Ill.

City Mission Committee: Rev. Jul. Kircher, D.D., Chairman; Rev. Alfred E. Meyer, Secretary; Mrs. Wm. C. Lange, Member and Representative of Ladies' Aids.

City Missionary: Rev. Wm. Grotefeld, 1110 Grove St., Downers Grove, Ill.

THE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

AT LANCASTER, PA.

This School of Theology, the oldest educational institution of the Reformed Church, is conducted under the direction of three English Synods: The Eastern, the Pittsburgh, and the Potomac.

Six Professors, four Instructors, an annual Lecturer and a Librarian.

In addition to the required work in the six Departments, courses are offered in Social Christianity, Rural Church Problems, History and Theory of Missions, History and Comparative Study of Religions and Church Music. A Professor of Christian Education will have charge of that department for the coming year. Required and Elective courses leading to degree of B.D. Worship conducted in chapel with pipe organ under the direction of a Master of Sacred Music.

Rooms and board in new dormitory and refectory at moderate rates.

The Seminary year begins on the second Tuesday of September.

BETHANY ORPHANS' HOME Womelsdorf, Pennsylvania

Our Home can again boast of the largest enrollment in its history. The health of our children has been unusually good during the past year.

While all phases of child life are stressed at Bethany, the Seventy-first Anniversary has found us stressing the attitude of the child to its regular duties. To do this we must create a spirit of pride in its accomplishments and a desire to achieve something worth while. The whole problem of discipline is involved so that work is not regarded as a punishment but duty.

Contributions have remained about the same as last year or an increase of $47.00. We believe the bottom has been reached and we are looking forward to a return to the necessary support of our children. Contributions 1927—$43,734.03; contributions 1934—$25,739.79; deficit 1934—$7,624.95. We hope and pray for the continued and increased support of our friends. We are entirely dependent on voluntary contributions and legacies for our support.

The German Protestant Home for Orphans and Old People

West Grand Boulevard

Detroit, Michigan

Our orphans' and old people's home is situated in one of the most beautiful sections of Detroit. We cordially welcome Evangelical people who may come to Detroit to visit our institution. A Grand River car to West Grand Boulevard will bring them right to the home.

The home is under control of the Michigan and Ohio Districts of our Evangelical Synod and is dependent upon friends within our Church for its support.

Our Home is able to accommodate 125 children and 45 to 48 old people. To meet our daily requirements is quite a problem at this time of social misery as the conduct of our institution is dependent more than ever before upon the generosity of our friends in the Synod.

We cordially solicit your interest and express our gratitude to the many friends who have heretofore supported us.

Bequests must be made in favor of "German Protestant Home for Orphans and Old People, c/o Mr. Chas. Reibling, Treasurer, 1433 Bagley St., Detroit, Mich." Other contributions will be gratefully received by the superintendent, Rev. F. Lueckhoff, 1852 W. Grand Blvd., Detroit, Mich. Phone: GARfield 8800.

A MONUMENT TO 76 YEARS OF SERVICE

Our Home cares for children who because of the loss of one or both of their parents have been deprived of the care of their own Home.

Proper housing, food, clothing, medical service, secular and Christian education, and other provisions for keeping our children physically, morally, and spiritually fit are provided. All of this service leads our boys and girls into happy, co-operative independent citizens, able to give, to society, and to gain from it, as much real value as children reared in good private Christian homes.

Ninety percent of our monetary maintenance is charity. We therefore sincerely solicit your interest and your gifts for our Home which is NEEDY, and worthy of the support of its friends.

ILLUSTRATIONS by E. S. Hardy need no introduction. They are known and famous in Sunday Schools throughout the English-speaking world and have long been used to interpret the story of the Bible. The artist has lived in the Holy Land, where a careful study of the life and customs of the people created the proper atmosphere for these wonderful paintings. Only an artist imbued with an understanding of the great spiritual truths combined with masterly technique could have painted such masterpieces. The 47 scenes included in these Bibles portray vividly and comprehensively the outstanding incidents in the Bible story. The pictures are printed by a new process of four-color lithography that reproduces very effectively the exact tints of the originals.
